JORDAN'S ECONOMIC IMPORTANCE

Jordan has a sound and resilient economy which gives it the capability of adapting to local and regional shocks and to achieve growth at stable and sustainable rates. Jordan is a member of the World Trade Organization (WTO) and is regarded as one of the most stable and desirable investment environments in the region, linking Syria, Palestine, Saudi Arabia, and Iraq as a vital regional hub.

GEOGRAPHIC LOCATION OF JORDAN

Jordan is located to the south of the Syrian Arab Republic, to the east of the State of Palestine, to the north of Saudi Arabia, and the west of the Republic of Iraq. This makes it an important link between three developing economies. Jordan is also a member of the World Trade Organization and an important regional center and one of the most desirable investment locations in the region.
